

A Call to Purity Weekend - Attendee Testimonies

This conference has really opened my eyes. I am glad both my husband and I attended. There will definitely be some radical changes in our home, all leading to learning to live a pure life. (Poplar Creek Church - New Berlin, WI)

Leading a holy life, surrendering to God was made very real and urgent to me. (Poplar Creek Church – New Berlin, WI)

My marriage was heading to divorce. Every session brought light and hope to me. Nothing I say can tell you how thankful I am. I feel hope to see a recreated marriage where the two of us can overcome all the hurt and pain by taking it all to the cross. I now have hope after almost going to the end of 22 years of marriage. It was worth more money than I could ever give. (Poplar Creek Church – New Berlin, WI)

Simplistic, to the point, direct and with great love. All of you have rocked my world to hope. (Poplar Creek Church – New Berlin, WI)

The Holy Spirit is working through you. Thank you for your authentic, transparent and humble attitude in sharing your testimony and the word of God. This conference has been an instrument of the Lord in my life. (New Beginnings Church of God – Meadville, PA)

This weekend has opened me up to my need to surrender in my daily walk by taking time to spend with the Lord daily, in the word and in prayer, not letting busyness keep me from Him. (New Beginnings Church of God – Meadville, PA)

I walked away from what brought me close to God in the beginning. Your work in Jesus showed me how to come back and my passionate need for Jesus. (New Beginnings Church of God – Meadville, PA)

I've walked close with Jesus for over 20 years, but today Jesus confirmed my extreme desire to come out from the world in an even greater way. Thank you. (New Beginnings Church of God – Meadville, PA)

God spoke to me here. I'm 18 years old, and I heard God for the first time speak to me today. (New Beginnings Church of God – Meadville, PA)

Spoke to me where I needed it most, in my heart...outstanding. (Sunrise Baptist – Lawrenceville, GA)

Thought I was doing “pretty good,” but, wow-oh-wow, God wants so much more of my life! I’m starting to see the meaning of “surrender all.” Thank you for helping me see—taking off my blinders—and allowing me to hear His call on my life. I can’t wait to start my Walk of Repentance. That in itself is a miracle! (Mt Pleasant Family Church – Terre Haute, IN)

My struggle is with anxiety and fear. This weekend has been a great encouragement to me by showing me how I am going to change and live a holy life in spite of my circumstances. (Mt Pleasant Family Church – Terre Haute, IN)

Gave me a recharging for the battle against sexual immorality. Digging into the Word of God was fantastic—would have liked even more. (Elim Gospel Church – Lima, NY)

This gave me a deep passion to serve God in every moment of every day. (Elim Gospel Church – Lima, NY)

This is not just for men. Both men and women need this. God bless you in all you do. (Elim Gospel Church – Lima, NY)

Thank you for your ministry and the time you spent sharing with us. This is something I have needed in my life to help me to take ownership of my sins and quit blaming others. (Grace Community Church – Overbrook, KS)

Right time; Right place for me. I almost did not come because I don’t do porn, at least not for the last 29 years. It was still very relevant. (Christ Memorial Church – Poulsbo, WA)

It was life changing—my husband has been my focus—it needed to be myself and my own heart. (Sunset Avenue Church of God – Asheboro, NC)

Very enlightening and encouraging that I am not alone in this. Others have had these problems and temptations and overcame them through Jesus. (Word Aflame – Little Rock, AR)

I really appreciate the sincerity of the speakers. The content of the sessions are great and realistic. (Word Aflame – Little Rock, AR)

I have been to an A Call to Purity Weekend before and I was deeply impacted and I am still impacted. This is the message that I need to hear continually in my ears—a call to put down my selfish life, my focus on worldly things and live for Christ, and worship Him from the heart. (Antioch Baptist Church – Blairsville, GA)

This conference/seminar was very inspirational, but also a blessing to me. It truly spoke to my heart and my life. Everything was well put together. (Grace Point Gospel – New City, NY)
