

Overcomers At-Home Women's Testimonies

I would suggest the program due to the help and guidance that is truly biblical. And there is no other way than God's way. My counselor was a true blessing for me. Every time I had trouble in my mind, questions or fear, she brought me each and every time to God's Word and with such love. (Erin—Little Falls, NJ)

I am so thankful for Pure Life Ministries. It has brought so much change into our home. God has totally transformed my husband which is the leader of the home and it affects everyone in the home. (Margaret—Leamington, ON)

I would recommend Pure Life. There is no other program like it. I can't recommend it highly enough. It was worth every penny that we paid. (Crystal—Hogansville, GA)

My counselor didn't focus on giving my sympathy, but rather encouraged me to get my eyes off my husband and his sin and onto what God desired to do in me. This program walked beside me, bringing me to the feet of Jesus where I could be—can be—transformed. (Wendy—Bangor, PA)

The OCAH program has taught me more deeply the depth of my own sin and need of Christ's forgiveness. At the same time I see my call to forgive my husband and love him—no matter the final outcome of my marriage. (Candy—Dallas, TX)

The program has been very successful for me! I love it! I still don't like when I'm confronted, but I love the peaceable fruit of righteousness it produces. (Trudy—Wheatley, ON)

This program allowed me to dig deeper in what a true follower of Christ looks like. (Lauren—Forest, VA)

Successful isn't the word I would choose to use. It was life changing. I can't believe how strongly the presence of God's truth is in this program. (Valerie—Midland, TX)

I was so hungry for support and encouragement that OCAH was a breath of fresh air and hope. (Melissa—Gainesville, FL)

This program was life-changing. I met Jesus. (Emily—Normal, IL)

I was consumed with pain and all kinds of feelings and emotions—anger, bitterness, unforgiveness, pride, self-righteousness. As I worked the program, I began to draw closer and closer to God again. (Constance—Clarkston, MI)

Even though Pure Life Ministries tends to deal specifically with sexual sin and its devastating effects on relationships, I think all Christians could benefit from OCAH. (Jocelyn—Lancaster, PA)

I am excited about what God may want to do with my marriage (Bonnie—Mohnton, PA)

My husband and I are in a much deeper, more loving relationship by focusing on our walk with the Lord. I can see that what transpired with my husband was related to deficits in our relationship with God and each other. (Janet—Irving, TX)

I am confident that God will use my husband and I in ministering to others once again. He has helped me to realize how great of a need there is to help others who are hurting from the effects of sexual addiction. (Belinda—St Petersburg, FL)

As a wife who has been through a lot and was afraid of what the world would think and now having seen the transformation in my husband, I would say, “If you want to know what true love is and what being happy feels like, allow yourself to see God, enter into this program and take the walk of repentance”. (Marilyn—Baton Rouge, LA)

This program saved us and our family. (Teresa—Carlyle, IL)

God is doing a very real and deep work in me through this situation and the OCAH program was a large part of it. (Courtney—Irmo, SC)

The program was more than successful! I’m alive and well and have the joy of the Lord in me! I have known the sweetness of Christ in the darkest hours of my life. (Melissa—Williamstown, KY)
